

Full Moon Meditation- 2nd of January 2018

This special meditation “Living as a Fifth Dimensional Master in 2018” created by Cornelia Maria Mohr , Germany wonderfully brings in the New Year.

If it is possible go out into the full moonlight or alternatively look out of a window. Stand with your arms raised, palms upwards to draw down the moon. Feel the energy of the moon coming in to you. Take a few moments to stand and bath in her magnificence. Visualize and feel her light filling up all your cells with love and wisdom. Lower your arms and take a seat.

Light a candle if you wish.

Lightly close your eyes and take a few moments to quietly focus on your breath allowing your mind and body to become still and peaceful. Breathe in source light and breathe out peace breathe in source light, breathe out peace breathe in source light and breathe out peace

Take your awareness to your feet and sense peace and stillness flowing down through your feet, your wonderful golden roots of light.....down through your earth star chakra..... all the way to the centre of the Planet. Lady Gaia opens up her arms to receive your roots and to gently place them around the great cosmic heart of Planet Earth. You are now grounded and held in divine love and wisdom of Earth.....

Let the energy flow up your golden roots of light, through all your chakras, your earth star chakra, up into your base, sacral and navel chakras, solar plexusEnjoy this beautiful energy within every cell of you andnow also in your heart centre, feeling your gratefulness being a child of this beautiful planet.

Then gently send this energy up through your throat chakra, third eye, crown and causal chakra, soul star and stellar gateway portal to God, to Source, Divine Consciousness. As you breathe in allow the pure white light of God to flow back down through all your upper chakras and into your heart centre where it merges with the light of Mother Earth. You are now in Divine alignment – as above and as below. Take a moment to be still and integrate the energy into every chakra – opening them up to their full 5th dimensional consciousness.

Call on Archangel Zadkiel and Gabriel to clear your aura and fields with the Cosmic Violet Diamond flame and to transmute all energies into divine light and divine love.

Call in the fire dragons to burn away all lower energies.

Call on Archangel Michael to surround you with his deep blue cloak of protection.

Visualize a pyramid of divine golden light surrounding you and the whole area above and around you, with another similar pyramid inverted beneath, so that you are completely safe.

Call on the Gold Ray of Christ to surround you. Do this three times.

Call on Archangel Metatron to place you in his golden orange, 9th dimensional ascension bubble of protection. You are totally protected and safe.

You feel your guardian angel lovingly taking your hands and slowly lifting you safely up over your home until you are standing high up on a very high and beautiful mountain. The full moon is still high over the landscape and you are able to see your home from up here. You feel your guardian angel, your unicorn and your dragon at your side. You feel safe and a nice warm and joyful feeling of expectation.

You breathe in the nice cool and refreshing air as the darkness begins to soften with the light of the coming new day.

You turn towards the east and you watch the sky beginning to lighten up with a golden glow over the horizon. Then the ball of the sun starts lightening up this awesome place of Mother Earth. You can feel the warmth of the light as it softly touches your face. Feel it's warm, golden energy pouring into your heart, filling your heart with love for all of life on Mother Earth.
