

Full Moon Meditation for October 25th, 2018

A Journey to the Angelic Realm and Unicorns in the Ninth Dimension to Anchor Purity and Divine Love

You are now sitting in a quiet, peaceful place where you feel good. Take a few deep breaths and feel how you start to relax. Breathe in golden light and breath out golden light into your aura. Breathe in it again ... and breath it out into your aura. And a third time breathe in golden light and breath it out into your aura and into your room You are now filled with and surrounded by golden light.

Now, bring your attention to you the soles of your feet and visualise golden roots growing down into the earth.... deep, deep into the center of earth to the crystalline heart of Mother Earth. Here they wrap themselves around the big crystal. You are now firmly anchored in Mother Earth's heart. Now the crystalline energy is flowing up through your roots. Notice how the energy flows up and up....through your Earth Star Chakra.... and into your feet. As the crystalline light flows further up your body, it illuminates all cells and fills them with pure, loving energy. Feel how your heart is filled with pure love. Love continues to flow up through your body illuminating everything on its path..... flowing into your crown chakra up through your higher chakras..... and then all the way up to Source. Now you are connected with Source. Immediately He sends a pure white, luminous ray of light to you. Notice how this light, which is unconditional love, flows through your higher chakras.....down through your crownand further into the center of your heart where it merges with the loving energy of Mother Earth. The divine pure white light spreads throughout your body and flows down through your chakras..... through your Earth Star and through your roots deep into the earth....to hollow earth, where it touches the crystalline heart . Mother Earth is illuminated from within. You know that you are connected from the center of the earth up to Source. You are one with the universe.

Call upon Archangel Michael and ask him to surround you completely with his dark blue cloak of protection. Invoke Archangel Metatron to place you in his 9th dimensional, gold-orange ball of light and thank him for his guidance on your ascension path.

Now you are leaving your room and are walking on a beautiful meadow accompanied by your guardian angel. It is evening and the stars in the sky are shining beautifully. The sky is clear and above the trees you can see the beautiful and radiant full moon rise. In all her glory she shines on you. There is complete silence and you can feel the magic of this evening. You consciously absorb this gentle and powerful energy and feel deeply connected with Archangel Christiel. You ask him to open your Causal Chakra wide to receive light codes and messages of the Higher Hierarchy . You close your eyes and let it happen ... When you open your eyes again, your beautiful, magnificent unicorn stands before you. With joy you welcome him, stroke his mane and immediately feel completely connected with him, heart to heart. Your unicorn tells you that you will now travel up into higher dimensions with him. First to the realm of angels and then further on to the 9-dimensional beautiful unicorns who are already waiting for you to bless you with their light and their pure love. Full of gratitude for this journey, you step on the back of your unicorn .Your guardian angel sits behind you, holding his soft wings around you. You feel completely safe.

Immediately your unicorn flies up to the beautiful night sky passing stars and planets You now see the moon much larger and closer and once again you pick up its soft, feminine, milky light. You know and feel that now your divine feminine qualities are being energized and strengthened. .

The Unicorn gently lands in a blooming garden of roses and fragrant flowers. You descend and hear the angels singing over you and welcoming you with their sacred harmonies in their kingdom. Around you all is pure love and beauty. You sit down on a bench next to a babbling fountain to enjoy this paradise Suddenly Mother Mary appears in front of you. You are astonished and full of joy. Her shining aquamarine blue light envelops you. She bathes you in her blessings and gives you a message now Mother Mary steps aside and Archangel Gabriel appears in his pure white light. He lets his amazing light shine over you and places a diamond in your heart Humble and full of gratitude you take his hands and kiss them. Now Archangel Gabriel is giving you a message

It's time to continue your journey with your unicorn and guardian angel.

The unicorn leads you up through the dimensions...higher and higher.... until you see a pure white, huge sphere of light in the sky. Your unicorn flies straight to this enormous sphere of light .Immediately you are bathed in this high frequency light. You feel the softness and the magic of this very special energy. As you land your unicorn declares that you have arrived at the destination of your journey. It is the realm of 9th dimensional unicorns. Here you look around. What do you perceive? ... From all over the unicorns have come to greet you warmly .You are awed with with the purity, luminous, shimmering pure white light and immeasurable love that is present here

You are lead you to a waterfall of pure, crystalline light and are asked to stand under that crystalline light in order to get completely cleansed. As you do so you feel that all your bodies and your entire being is purified by this light . You feel a huge vibrational boost .

Now you are asked to stand in the middle of a crystal platform. As you do so the unicorns surround you in a wide circle. One of the unicorns steps forth out of the circle and tells you that you will now experience another vibrational increase that will allow you to absorb 9th dimensional and even higher light into your being to enable you to easily go ahead on your ascension path. To enable this the unicorns set their crystalline horns on you. You close your eyes and let the stream of light flow over you and into your bodies When you open your eyes, you notice that the unicorns have bowed to you. Full of humility, you take your hands and gratefully hold them in front of your wide opened, pure white heart and thank these magnificent divine beings for their blessings .

The time has come to return again. You sit on your unicorn and immediately the journey goes back through the dimensions, passing by planets and stars until you can see our wonderful planet Earth radiating beautifully rainbow colors into the universe

Bring your consciousness back to your room where you started and feel the chair where you are sitting on .Feel the ground under your feet. Move your arms and hands and open your eyes. Smile and drink a glass of water.
