Terms and Conditions

On completion of the Course

The course participant will be issued with a certificate as a Teacher with the Diana Cooper Foundation (DCF) when they have demonstrated the following to the satisfaction of their Master Teacher:

- Maximum attendance is expected, however exceptional personal circumstances will be taken into consideration.
- Has acted in an appropriate and professional manner at all times.
- Has shown the ability to lead a group safely and appropriately in a variety of situations, while remaining grounded, in control and with an awareness of the group members, as taught and assessed.
- Has produced a satisfactory piece of written work for the module (may be recorded if writing is difficult).
- Has shown a commitment to the course and willingness to complete any homework given.
- All monies due have been paid.
- Agree to abide by the Code of Conduct as set by the Diana Cooper Foundation

The Master Teacher's decision is final.

The issuing of a certificate to a successful student is conditional on that student agreeing to abide by the latest version of the DCF Code of Conduct and Advertising Standards. The DCF reserves the right to withdraw a certificate in the case of a serious or persistent breach of this Code.

Cancellation Policy

- If you cancel your place less than 14 days before the beginning of the course, the full deposit will be retained.
- If you cancel your place more than 14 days before it starts an administration charge of £120 will be retained and the remainder of any other monies refunded.
- Once the course has begun the participant agrees to pay in full any outstanding balance due, including any instalments that have been agreed.
- Should you be asked to leave the course (see below) you will be refunded on a pro-rata basis for any complete days you will not be attending.
- If you decide to leave the course on your own accord the full course fee is still payable and no refunds are available.

Very rarely it is necessary to ask a course participant to leave before the course is completed. This may happen in the following circumstances or at the discretion of the Master Teacher (their decision is final):

- Failure to disclose any serious mental illness on the application form or the development of such.
- The use of any recreational drugs or excessive alcohol during the period covered by the course.
- Consistent inability to remain grounded or return to your body after the spiritual exercises.
- Consistent lack of awareness of those you are leading during training exercises.
- Persistent focus on lower dimensional energies, particularly if accompanied by:
  - An inability to be responsible for your own energies and spiritual development.
  - An inability to connect with the higher spiritual realms as taught on the course.

Pregnancy

Please note that this course is not suitable for those in the latter stages of pregnancy or within 3 months of giving birth. During these times women are often more vulnerable because of their own changing hormonal balances.
